

Amrisha,

I never wanted to end the things the way it ended. Now at this point I after talking to you idk if i should talk to you or not. No bad vibes Amrisha . I can't ever forget you , Us. You were right about the bullet scars...We have to bear throughout our lives.

Amrisha I've always and I'll always love you. Ig I have treated you the worst anyone can treat his girl,But my intentions were always pure. I always wanted to be the "home" where you wanted to come after a long day.

I've read this somewhere that "You can love someone and still let them Go"

So Amrisha, I Love You and I let you go. I'll miss you. I hope wherever you'll go, you find peace. Whoever , whenever you meet, he'll treat you better, not the way I shattered you.

Wherever you go next, know that I love you.
